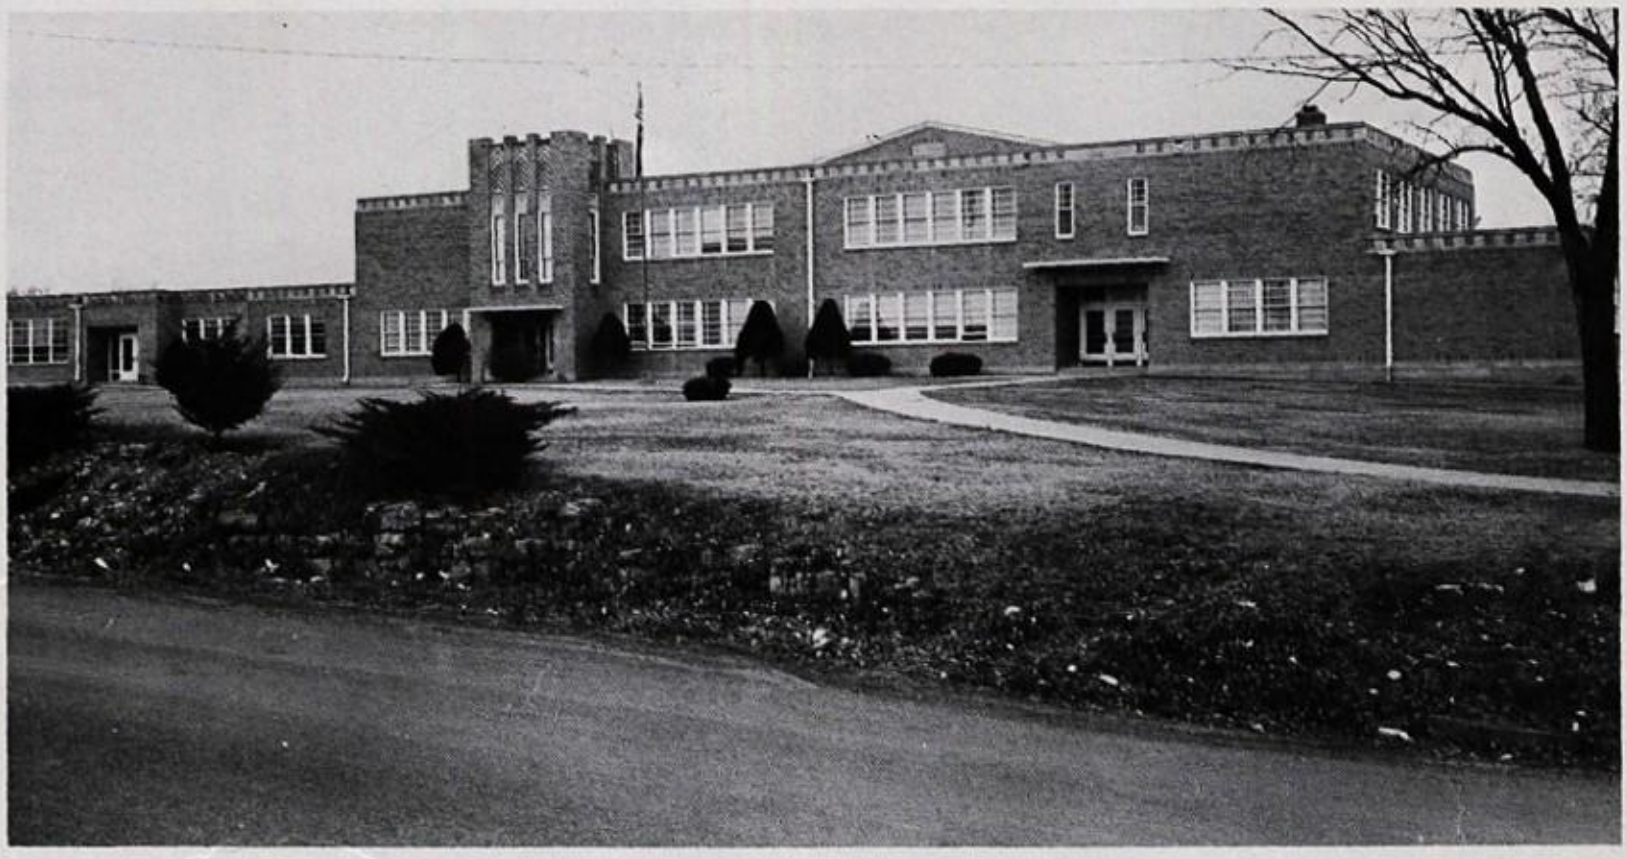
Wakefield High School



Alma Mater

In the heart of the United States,
In sunny Kansas Land,
Where the Republican's blue waters
Slowly wash their silvery strand,
There resting in the valley
Is our old Wakefield town,
And from its stately, throne-like hill,
Our High School dear looks down.

Oh, Wakefield High! Oh, Wakefield High!
The Alma Mater of our youth;
Oh, Wakefield High! Oh, Wakefield High!
We love and reverence thee in truth.

When our high school days have reached the end,
And we knock at life's door,
Still fondest memories will linger
Round that old High School of yore.
The colleges should beckon,
And we haste to their call,
Were it not for our High School dear,
We wouldn't be there at all.

-Sadie Fenton

We, the Seniors of 1970, proudly dedicate our annual to the memory of Gwynetha Green (1952-1969), who was a respected and well-liked member of our class. We were all saddened by her death on October 10, 1969.
